

2017 RECYCLING BONANZA!

Dedman Foundation Parking Area

SATURDAY, APRIL 29, 2017

10:00 am to 2:00 pm

FREE

Bring the following:

- Plastics #1 and #2 with screw on lids/top(this collection only)—please rinse
- Eye Glasses
- Computer Towers (CPUs) ONLY; for other electronic devices/equipment contact Staples for their recycling program information
- Newspaper/Magazines/Paper
- Aluminum Cans
- Cardboard
- Household batteries (sorted by chemical type, niCad, alkali)—no liquid batteries will be accepted
- Phone Books
- Steel cans (canned food cans), rinsed and paper label removed
- Clothing and accessories, gently used or better, sorted by clothing type (shirts, pants, coats, belts, etc)
- Shoes, gently used or better
- Fabric yardage, local 4-H members are interested in your fabric stash to learn how to sew and do community service projects if you would like to share and put it towards a good cause
- Paint Must be usable - all kind

SCRAP METAL Appliances, Stoves, Refrigerators

PAPER SHREDDER ALSO AVAILABLE Safely destroy documents you no longer need! A small charge may be accessed for extra-large loads.

Books will be collected for the Friends of the Library Book Sale during Summer Celebration No encyclopedias or other sets of reference books will be accepted

Please separate items by categories as they are listed above.

Heavy items such as appliances will be able to unloaded first in the line-up.

This event will be in place of the monthly May Collection—NO MAY COLLECTION

Join the fun and make a difference while supporting community organizations!

For more information on the FREE collection events or other items you would like collected for an upcoming project, please contact:

Fort Benton Recycles - 781-3948 or Janell Barber, MSU Chouteau County Extension – 622-3036