

Health Insurance: Financial Literacy

February 22, 2017

Resources

1. Department of Labor's "Glossary of Health Coverage and Medical Terms":
Four page guide to common financial terms used in the medical field.
www.dol.gov/sites/default/files/ebsa/laws-and-regulations/laws/affordable-care-act/for-employers-and-advisers/SBCUniformGlossary.pdf
2. Federal Government's Health Care Website:
This website is also referred to as the market place under the affordable care act. You can enter your information and get both estimates and actual insurance plan quotes. You can compare different policy options and the site can help you estimate any tax credits that you may be eligible to receive.
www.healthcare.gov/
3. Kaiser Family Health's "Understanding Health Insurance" Video Series:
Series of 1 minute video clips about understanding different features of health insurance plans.
<http://kff.org/interactive/subsidy-calculator/>
4. California Health Care Foundation's "Health Care Almanac":
Report that provides an overview of US Health Care spending and trends within the health care industry.
www.chcf.org/~media/MEDIA%20LIBRARY%20Files/PDF/PDF%20H/PDF%20HealthCareCosts16.pdf